

What REALTORS® are saying about the New PDP

“To be a successful professional one needs knowledge and experience.

I expect the New PDP program will be useful in helping each of us to lay that good foundation for knowledge and competence.

I am looking forward to it!”

Stephen Kwok, Managing Broker, Vancouver BC

“As a Commercial REALTOR® and a strong advocator of advance education, I am very impressed by BCREA’s new PDP products and features. The new PDP website provides us with pertinent information in a very user-friendly form.

Our chosen profession can, and will benefit from the winning combination of the existing PDP approved courses (offered by the education leaders such as BCREA, CCIM Institute, REIC and UBC Sauder School of Business), the new accreditation system, and the flexible methods of course delivery.”

Moe Lessan, REALTOR®, Nanaimo BC

“The PDP Program is such an essential tool, if not the most important, for new and experienced real estate agents alike. Allowing us to stay on top of new issues, keep our industry knowledge as up-to-date as possible and enable us to provide the best possible value-added service to our clients . . . and now with the new developments to the program, it has become an even more effective industry asset.”

William Lacy, REALTOR®, Quesnel BC

“I’m ecstatic about the new PDP education model for REALTORS®! In my 14 years of selling, I have always attended the Legal Update courses and the limited selection of other courses offered to maintain my required PDP credits.

My frustration with the old system was that there was limited new material, an archaic course environment and lack of flexibility on times the courses were offered.

The new system is fantastic! It is easier to track the credits you have and what you need; the variety in selection is excellent for the variety of issues that we need to be current on and the environment for learning has become more flexible & fun. Personally, I want the public to view Realtors with the same regard as Lawyers & Accountants, so being educated on the current Real Estate related topics is paramount to earning the respect from the public and our clients.”

Tamara Terlesky, REALTOR®, Kelowna BC

“The new PDP program will benefit all REALTORS®. All the way from new REALTORS® to brokers. There will be a course for everyone!”

Judy Klassen, REALTOR®, Princeton BC

“As a Commercial REALTOR®, and Strata Manager, I have spent many classroom hours taking “mandatory” courses that, while interesting, had little or no bearing on the work that I do as a REALTOR®.

I’m excited about the increased flexibility available in the new system, and feel that courses will have a lot greater value for REALTORS® not in the residential sale business!”

Dennis Fimrite, Managing Broker, Saanichton BC
