

BRITISH COLUMBIA
REAL ESTATE
ASSOCIATION

For immediate release

BCREA Welcomes 2004-2005 President Gordon Maroney

Vancouver, BC – May 10, 2004. The British Columbia Real Estate Association (BCREA) welcomes Gordon Maroney, a Delta area REALTOR and former president of the Fraser Valley Real Estate Board, as its 2004-2005 president.

Maroney joined the BCREA Board of Directors in 2001. He has been a licensed REALTOR for 19 years and currently works with Re/Max Performance Realty.

A committed and respected volunteer of organized real estate since 1991, Maroney says he looks forward to the challenges of leading a profession that is a significant contributor to BC's economy.

Dave Barclay, of Re/Max Bulkley Valley in Smithers, was elected vice president. Joining Maroney and Barclay as officers of the Association are Past President David Herman, of Re/Max 2000, and Executive Officer Robert Laing.

New directors are: Bill Binnie, Gretchen Gebhard, Marc Owen-Flood, David Peerless, Rick Valouche and Linda Woodruff. Returning for another term as directors are: Patti Flostrand, Kelly Lerigny, John Tillie and Scott Veitch.

BCREA represents 12 member real estate boards and their nearly 13,000 REALTORS on all provincial issues, providing an extensive communications network, required licensing and continuing education courses, standard forms and government relations.

-30-

For a photograph of President Gordon Maroney, visit: <http://www.bcrea.bc.ca/images/GordonMaroney.jpg>

For more information, please contact:

Gordon Maroney, President, 604.590.4888

Kim Mason, Communications Coordinator, 604.742.2784